Description

RL0918 - 24 Stratford Way is a spacious and deceptively large three-bedroom double-fronted bungalow, positioned within the popular Huntington area of York and offering far more than first impressions may suggest.

The accommodation is well balanced throughout and begins with a generous entrance hallway, immediately setting the tone for the space on offer. Unlike many bungalows, there are no narrow hallways or compromised room sizes here. The lounge is a particularly good size and opens directly into a large modern conservatory, which runs along the rear of the property and creates a superb additional living space overlooking the garden.

The conservatory also provides access into the modern kitchen, fitted with bright shaker-style units, integrated appliances and a practical layout ideal for everyday use.

There are three genuinely good-sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefitting from its own ensuite shower room. A modern family shower room serves the remaining bedrooms.

Outside, the property continues to impress. To the front is a low-maintenance lawned garden and driveway, with electrically operated gates leading to further rear parking and a detached double garage, one with electric doors.

The rear garden feels private and well enclosed, mainly laid to lawn with planted borders. To the right-hand side of the property is a small wildlife area, meaning the home only has neighbours directly to one side, adding to the overall sense of privacy.

This is a rare opportunity to purchase a spacious, well-planned bungalow in Huntington with excellent parking, a double garage and a private setting.
